

Bio – James W. Laraway

Education

1. Business with Chemical Engineering and Chemistry Minors (B.S. Business Administration – School of Business & Technology, Oregon State University)

Positions

1. Manager of Industrial Business Unit – Degremont Technologies (SUEZ Environnement) as President & CEO of Water & Power Technologies Companies (Salt Lake City, UT; Denver, CO; Columbia, SC; Arlington, TX, Deer Park, TX); President & CEO of Anderson Water Systems, Dundas, Ontario, Canada; President & CEO of Degremont Technologies Australia, Sydney, Australia; (4 years), AmeriWater, Dayton, OH (acquired in 2011) – Industrial High Purity Water Treatment Equipment, High Purity Water Treatment Services
2. Vice President & General Manager of Water & Power Technologies, Inc. Companies, Sr. Vice President EarthTech (TYCO) (8 years)
3. President of Wy'east Technologies LLC, Brush Prairie, WA (3 years) – Manufacturer's Representative for Water Treatment Equipment to Semiconductor Industry
4. Vice President – Sales & Marketing, Glegg Water Conditioning, Guelph, Ontario, Canada, Rockford, IL (4 years) – Industrial High Purity Water Treatment Equipment
5. Corporate Vice President Sales, U.S. Filter, Rockford, IL. (3 years) – Water & Wastewater Treatment Equipment
6. Corporate Vice President Sales, Alcoa Separations, Rockford, IL (3 years) — Water & Wastewater Treatment Equipment
7. President, Laraway & Associates, Inc., Rockford, IL (3 years) – Manufacturer's Representative for Corn Wet Milling ion exchange and exclusion process liquid treatment equipment
8. Vice President – Chemical Engineering, Techni-Chem, Inc., Cherry Valley, IL (9 years) Ion Exchange Equipment for Corn Wet Milling products and other non-water treatment and special applications ion exchange treatment systems.
9. Regional Sales Manager for Duolite Ion Exchange Resins, Diamond Shamrock, Schaumburg, IL, Houston, TX, (9 years) – District Manager for Midwest, Western U.S. and Asia-Pacific for ion exchange resins.

Author of Technical Papers, Co-Inventor U.S. Patent No. 7,520,993